FOREWORD

In a short time, our days in high school will be over and we, like many before us, shall be gone and the things we have done will be called tradition. To help preserve the memory of these wonderful high school days is the reason for presenting this book to you.

If, in years to come, it helps bring back fond memories and recalls old faces and friendships, then what we have done will not have been in vain.

The Wolverine staff proudly presents to you THE FACES OF TOLLESON UNION HIGH SCHOOL.

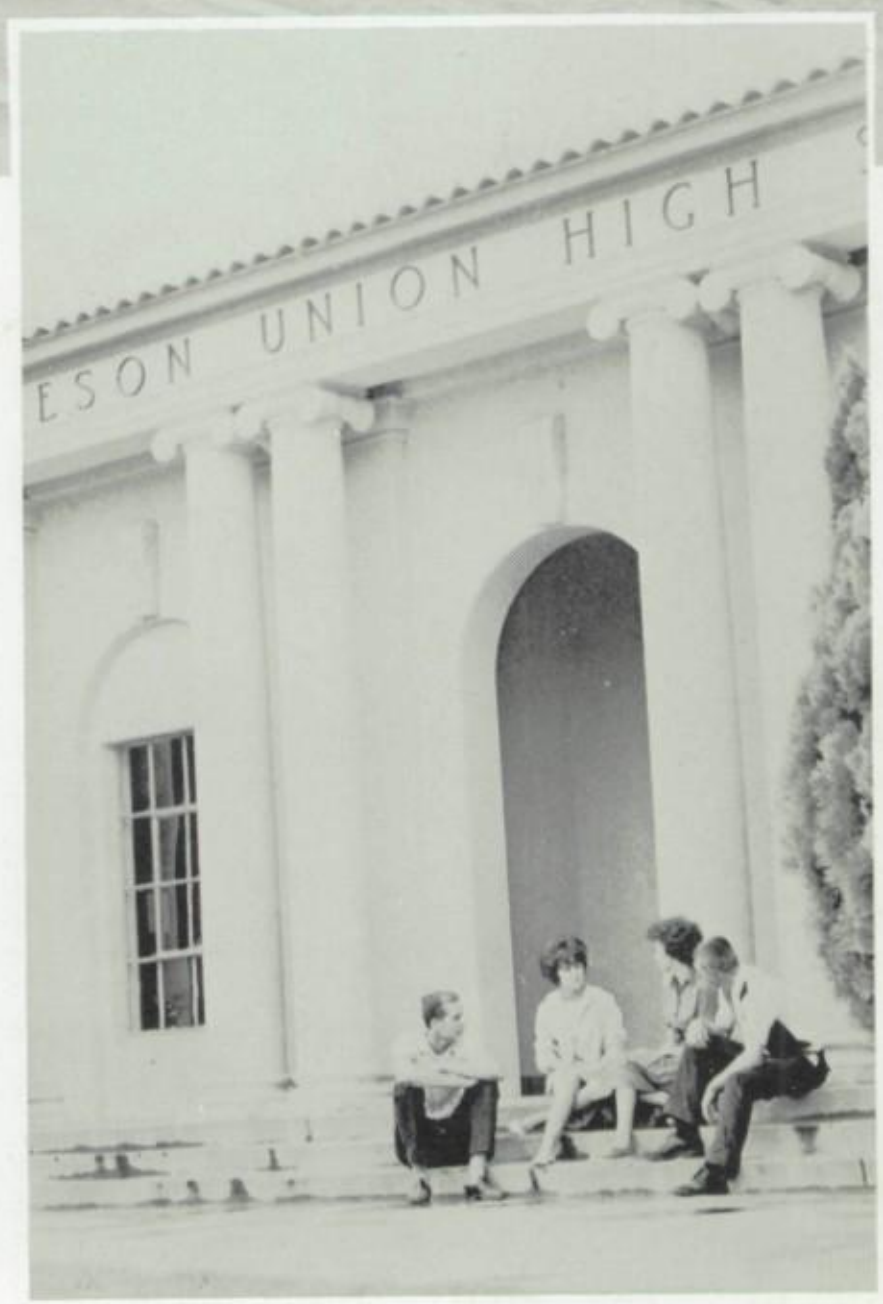
We'll Always Say, 'All Hail to

Our School . . .



. . . of Tol-le-son High

We'll always keep

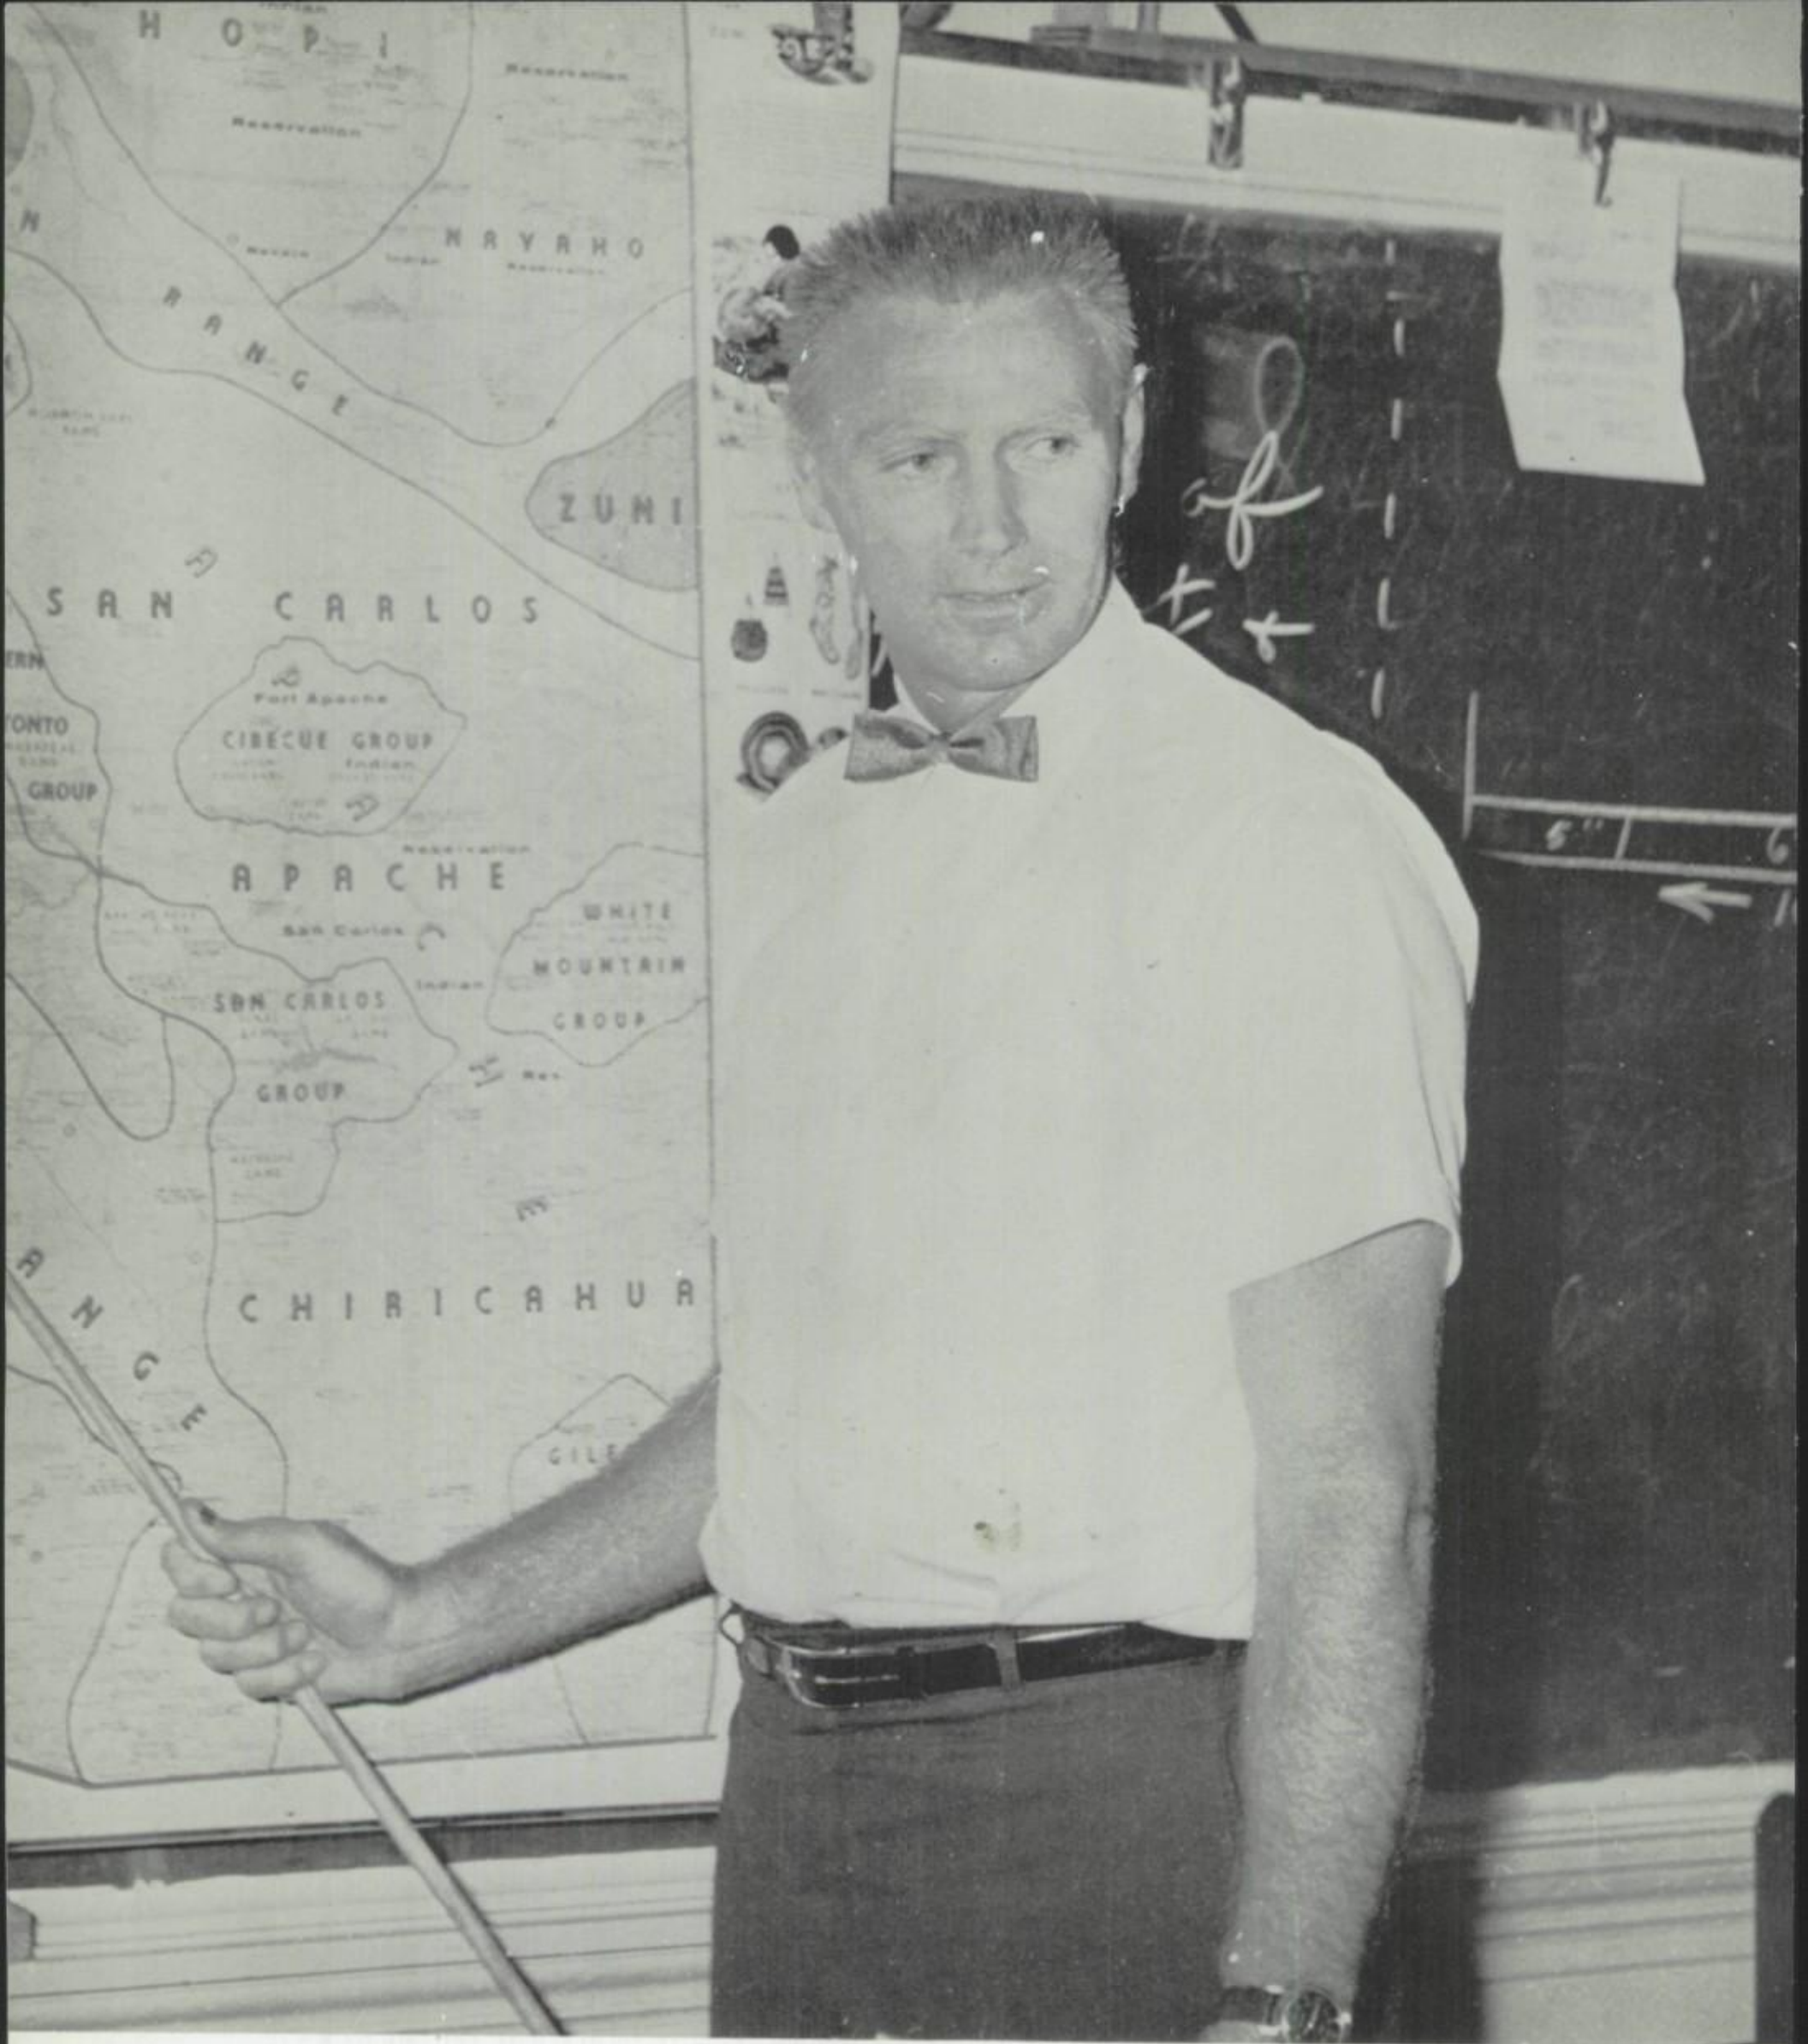
Our reverence high

We'll always be loyal

Always be true

To Tolleson High

All Hail, all Hail.



Seniors berate him for their long government assignments, but when the year is over, all of Mr. Don Snyder's students are proud to have had him for a teacher. For his fine work as a teacher and coach and for his friendliness and good spirits, the Wolverine staff is proud to dedicate the 1963 Wolverine to Mr. Snyder.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

School Board Planned for Expansion of School Plant

The School Board of TUHS was called upon to make many important decisions during the year. They drew up plans for a much-needed expansion of TUHS facilities.

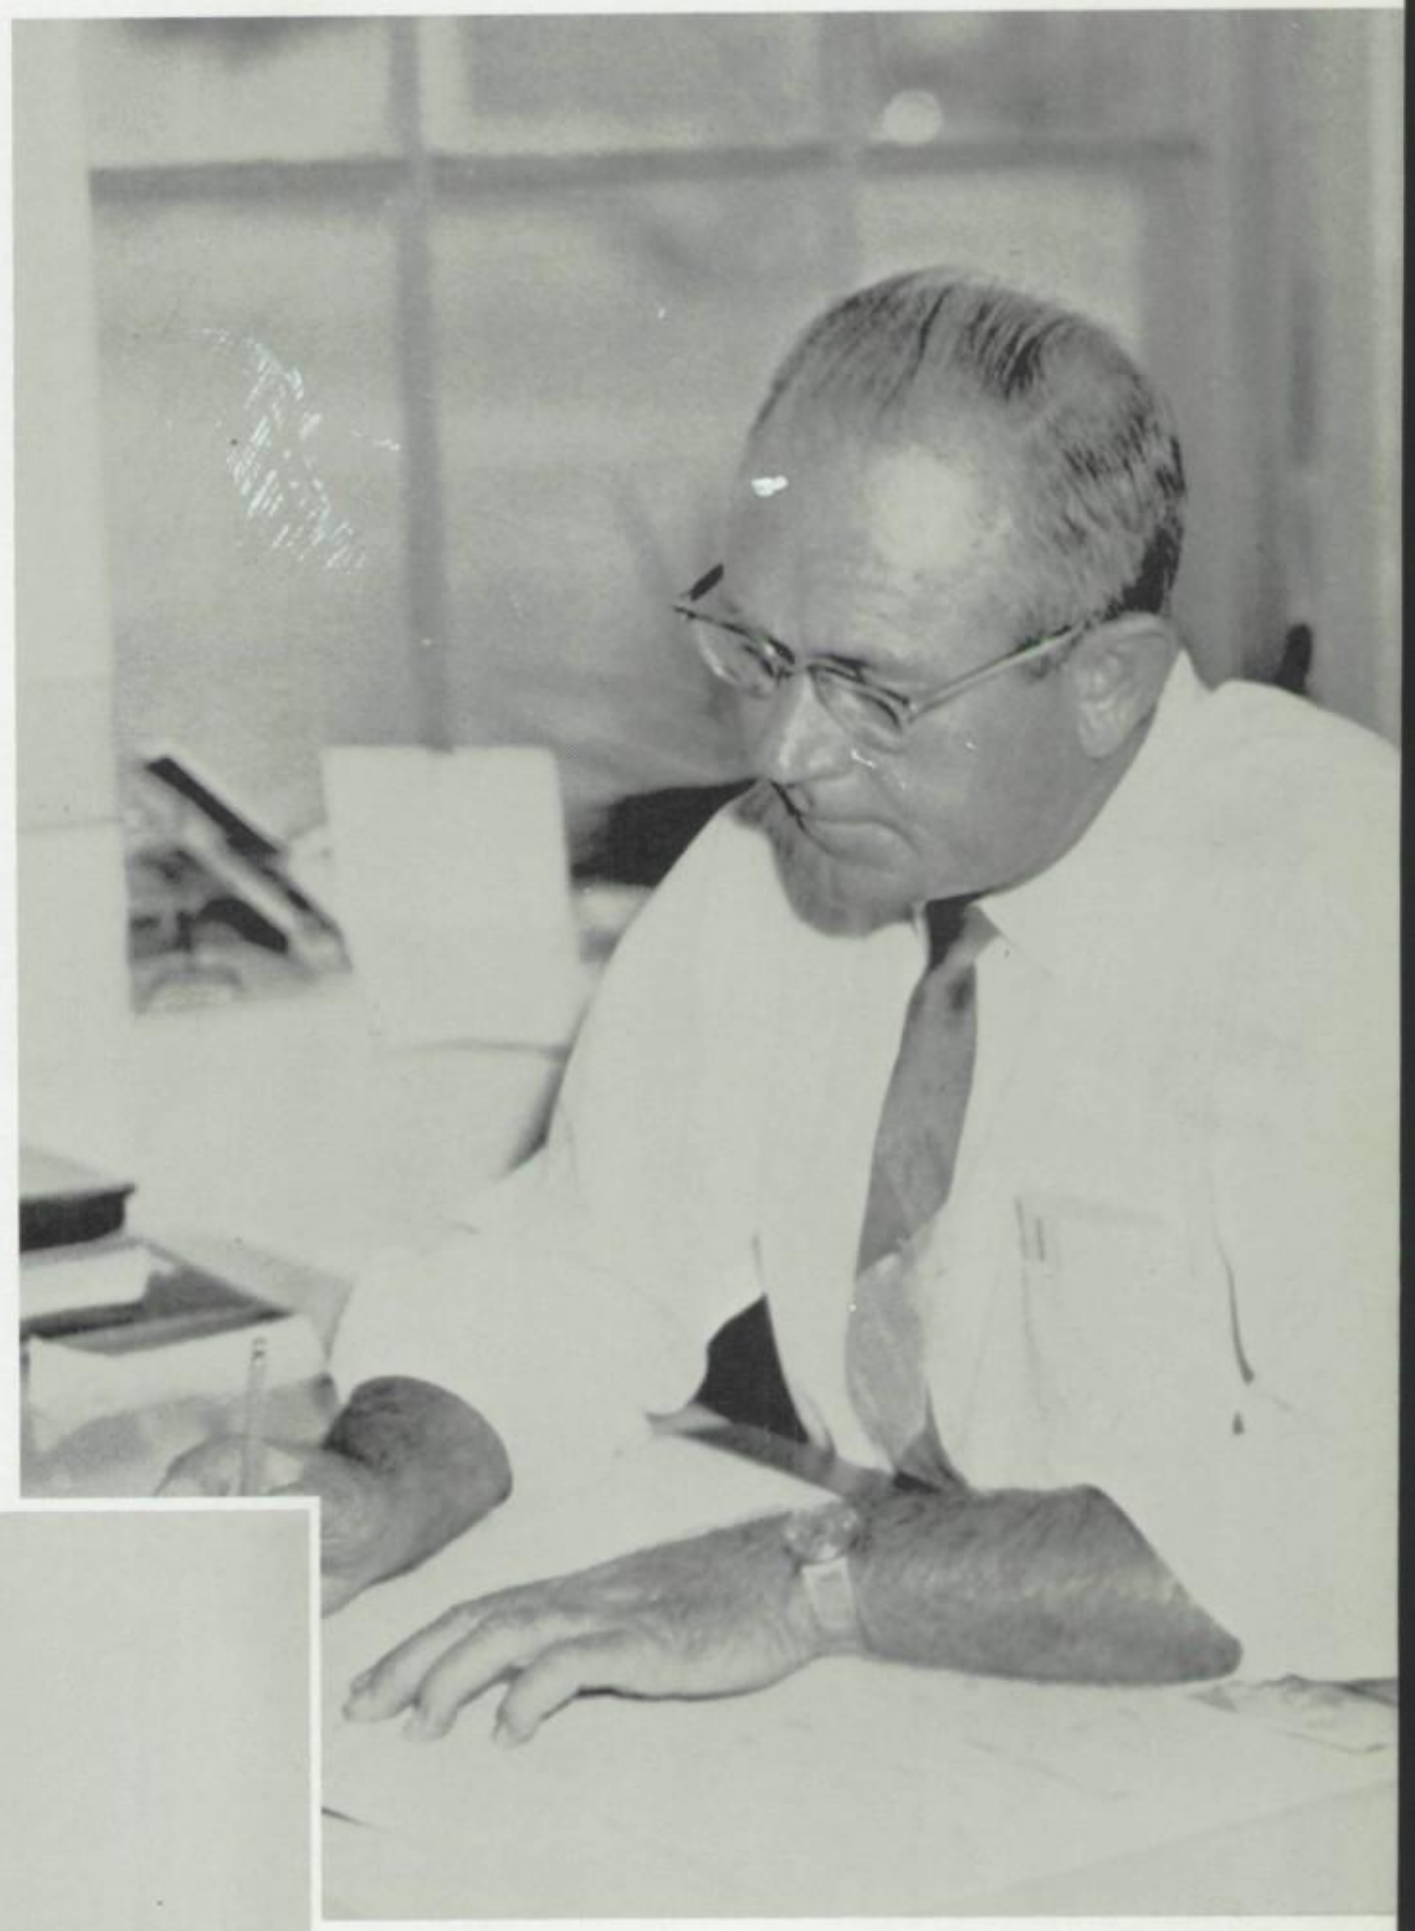
Other jobs which the board performs are the hiring of new teachers, approval of student marriages, and sanctioning of the school budget.

Two new members were added to the School Board, Cecil Miller and Ralph Bell.

President Bruce Brooks presided at meeting of the Tolleson Union High School Board.

The members of the school board are Cecil Miller, Ralph Bell, Bruce Brooks, president, Leonard Hamilton, Dr. Milo Willis.

Administrators Guide School, Help Students



SUPT. WILLIAM E. KEEGAN

Certainly one of the most familiar faces around TUHS is that of our superintendent, Mr. William E. Keegan.

Students soon learned that although he could be stern and forceful, he could also be friendly and helpful. Problems presented to him were soon fairly solved.

Under Mr. Keegan the changes in the school were evident. His administration saw the addition of the publications room, the paving of the patio, improvement in the athletic fields and many other less obvious changes.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Keegan is the father of two sons, John and Mike.

A native of Globe, he attended ASU where he received his bachelor and master of arts degrees.

PRINCIPAL CLINTON E. WAGER

Mr. Clinton E. Wager ranks among the top in years of service at Tolleson Union High where he has been principal for the past eleven years.

Born in Bisbee, he spent his early years in Nogales. He received his schooling at ASC and ASU.

In addition to his duties as principal, Mr. Wager usually teaches a class in English or biology.

When he is not in school, Mr. Wager likes to while away his free hours hunting and fishing.

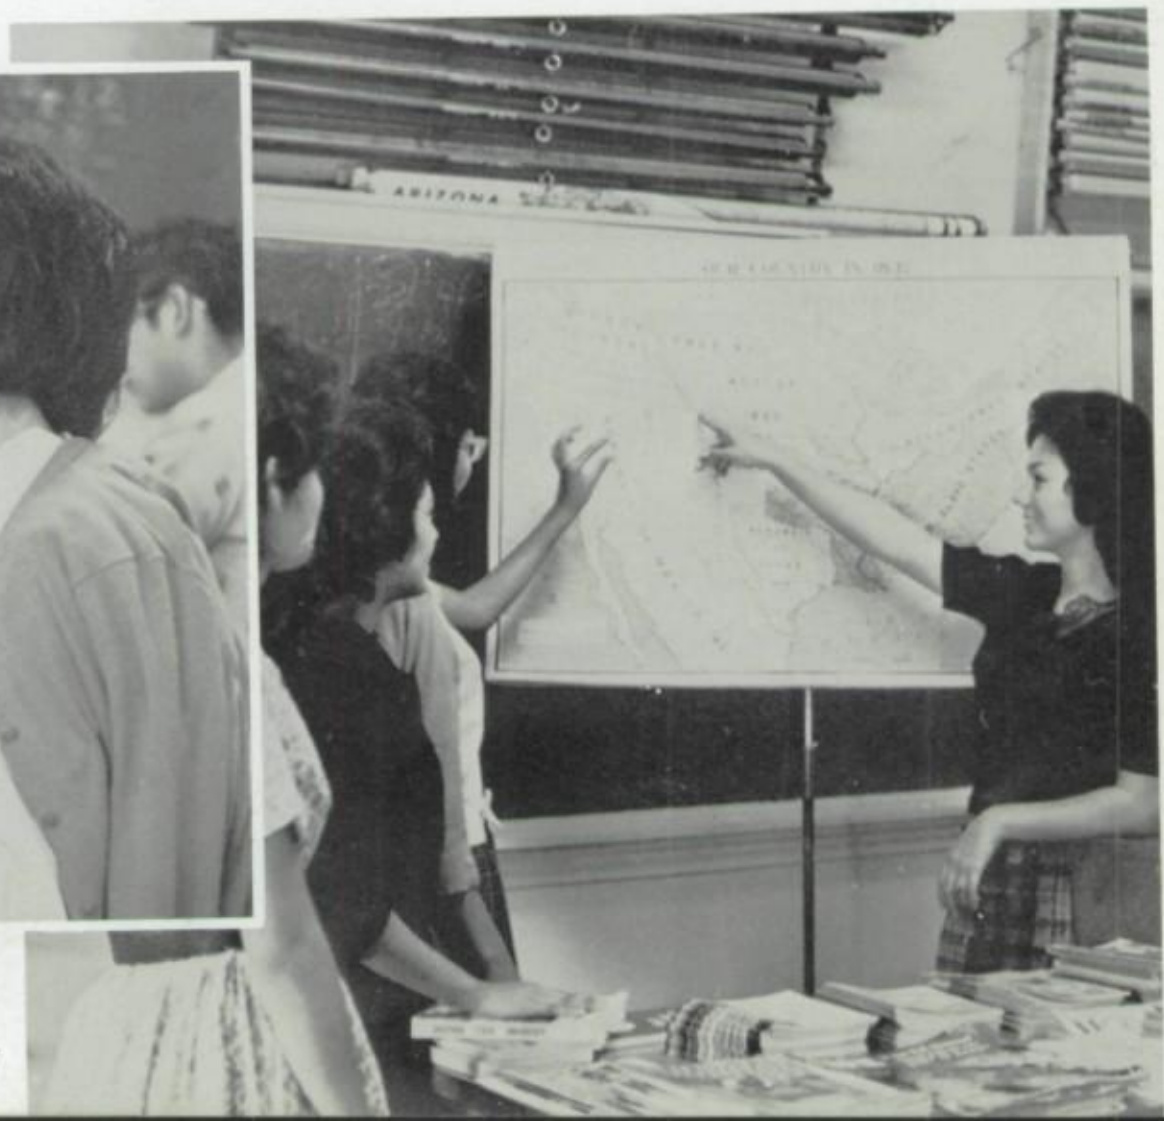
Social Sciences Give Knowledge of World, Country

Oral discussion helps to broaden the mind.

One way to get around the world is through a history book.



Interesting Projects, Recognition of Achievement Make School More Interesting

Projects in which the students can express themselves through creative imagination add interest to the curriculum. Here students admire projects for American history.

James Claridge, a student at the University of Arizona, did his student teaching work under Mr. Clair Decker in vocational agriculture.

Recognition is given to students who make the honor roll by maintaining a 2.0 average in all subjects. Below they are honored in a special assembly.

MRS. GRACE SHELTON

The office staff was again headed by Mrs. Hilda Basler now in her tenth year. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Maude Hintz, who divided her time between the office and the cafeteria, and Mrs. Grace Shelton, who was new on the staff this year.

Answering phones, collecting absence slips, working in the bookstore, and filing and typing were among the duties of the girls who spent a period each day working in the office.

Good Meals, Neat Building Their Job

The custodians and cafeteria workers at TUHS contribute much to our school life. With their helpfulness and friendly ways, they are among the most well known and most popular people on campus.

This year Miss Nancy Giebel was added to the cafeteria staff, and Allen Micheals was added to the custodian staff.

The cafeteria workers who prepare such fine meals are Miss Nancy Giebel, Mrs. June Holderith, Mrs. Margaret Davis, (not pictured) Mrs. Etoile Roberds.

CLASSES

Vice president Junior Stewart received valuable support from Senior Class president, Donna Thurn; treasurer, Dawn Tackett; secretary, Cathy Oracion. Sponsors for the class were Mrs. Vowles, Mr. Faris, and Mr. Jenkin.

Seniors Had Diminished in Number

After beginning as freshmen with a class of 125, the Class of '63 found that they had dwindled to the 70's by Graduation Day. During the big senior year some of them made trips to Tucson and Tempe for Senior Day. Everyone joined in the fun of the Senior Picnic when wild hats and bright colored clothing were in evidence.

Choosing announcements, taking qualifying tests, studying government, and frantically deciding what to do after graduation kept everybody on the run. After all they had said about not liking school, many of them wondered why they had tears in their eyes as they marched up to receive their diplomas.

Junior Class sponsors were Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Seifman, and Mr. Woodring.

Homecoming, Prom Responsibility on Juniors' Shoulders

Homecoming and time to welcome the alumni! Call the Junior Class! Planning for this big event in the fall and for the Junior-Senior Prom in the spring were two big jobs for the busy juniors. In between they were kept hopping with sponsoring dances to help defray the cost of the Prom.

With the coming of spring many members of the class found themselves with their hats in the ring in preparation for running for important student body offices. Even more than the seniors, the juniors found themselves in a constant round of activities throughout the year.

Sophomores Were Busy Building Treasury

The Sophomore Class officers were: Nellie Mendiola, treasurer; Leonard Duran, president; Gloria Zaragoza, secretary; and John Cordova, vice-president.

They were sponsored by Mr. Mattson and Mrs. Michaels.

Sophomores had made it over the first hump. They began working energetically to raise money to keep their treasury alive. Among other fund-raising ventures was a dance.

Everything required so much planning, and, of course, there were always tests in biology, English and other sophomore subjects.

Everyone looked forward to his junior year when he would be even busier.

Guzman Headed Freshman Class

The freshmen received the customary kidding from the upperclassmen, particularly the seniors. However, they were able to hold their own scholastically and in sports, especially in basketball.

Among the outstanding freshmen were the class officers: Sarah Brown, secretary; Greg Whitfield, treasurer; Alfred Guzman, president; and Larry Hudson, vice president. Of great assistance to the Freshman Class were the sponsors, Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Sims.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Student, Merit Councils Build Leaders

Members of the Student Council were A. Guzman, L. Duran, B. Beasley, L. Bailey, Mr. Wager, N. Khan, president, G. Babcock, vice president, T. Smiley, D. Thurn, and K. Kruse.

Making plans for a foreign student and decorating the walls with pictures of the winning float and a picture of the members of the council were some of the projects of the Student Council. It was the council's job to pass on dates for the school calendar and take charge of elections.

Members of the Merit Council Y. Soto, D. Thurn, and R. Moseley decide who shall receive demerits.

Other Merit Council members are Lynn Frederick, R. Leverton, and Mr. Decker, advisor.

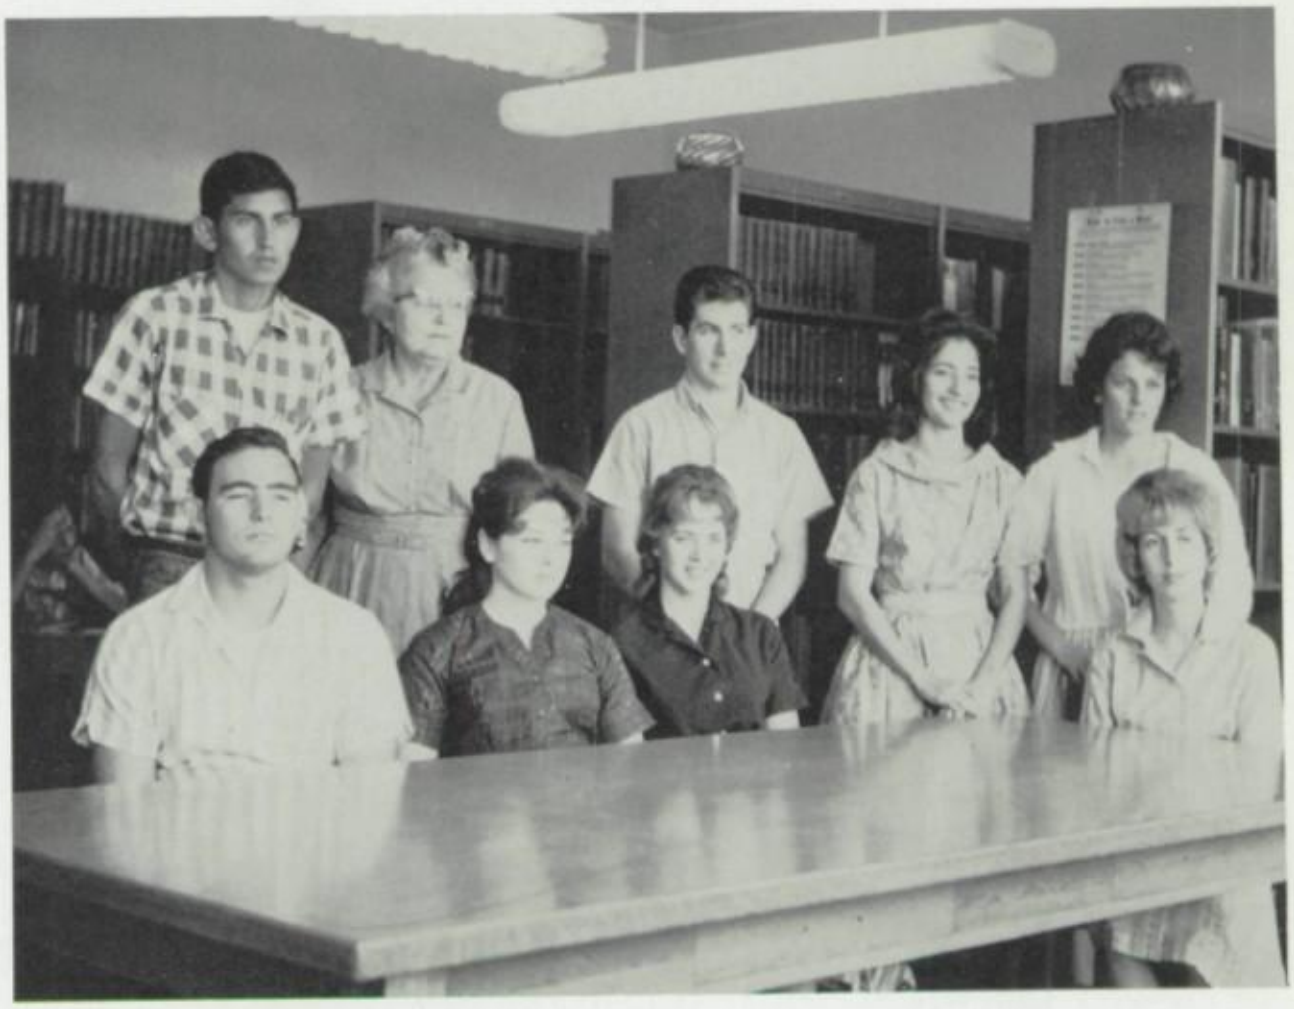
National Honor Society Enlarges

A big black, three foot stuffed poodle was raffled at Christmas time by the National Honor Society.

This was one of the fund raising projects that NHS sponsored in order to pay for pins and initiation of new members.

NHS is a national honorary organization based on scholarship.

Only students maintaining a "2" average in all subjects for five semesters may apply for membership.



SEATED: D. Green, L. Bailey, D. Thurn, D. Tackett. STANDING: G. Leon, Mrs. Lindsey, J. Williams, E. Rodriguez and K. Kruse.

Tolleson Tri-Sci Chapter Changes Name

Behind the table: D. Tackett, R. Leverton, P. Leonard, S. Stottlemyre, B. Prather, Mr. Hendrix. STANDING, ROW 2: I. Wilson, C. Leon, T. Fogelson, V. St. John, J. Williams, R. Underdown, and D. Leonard.

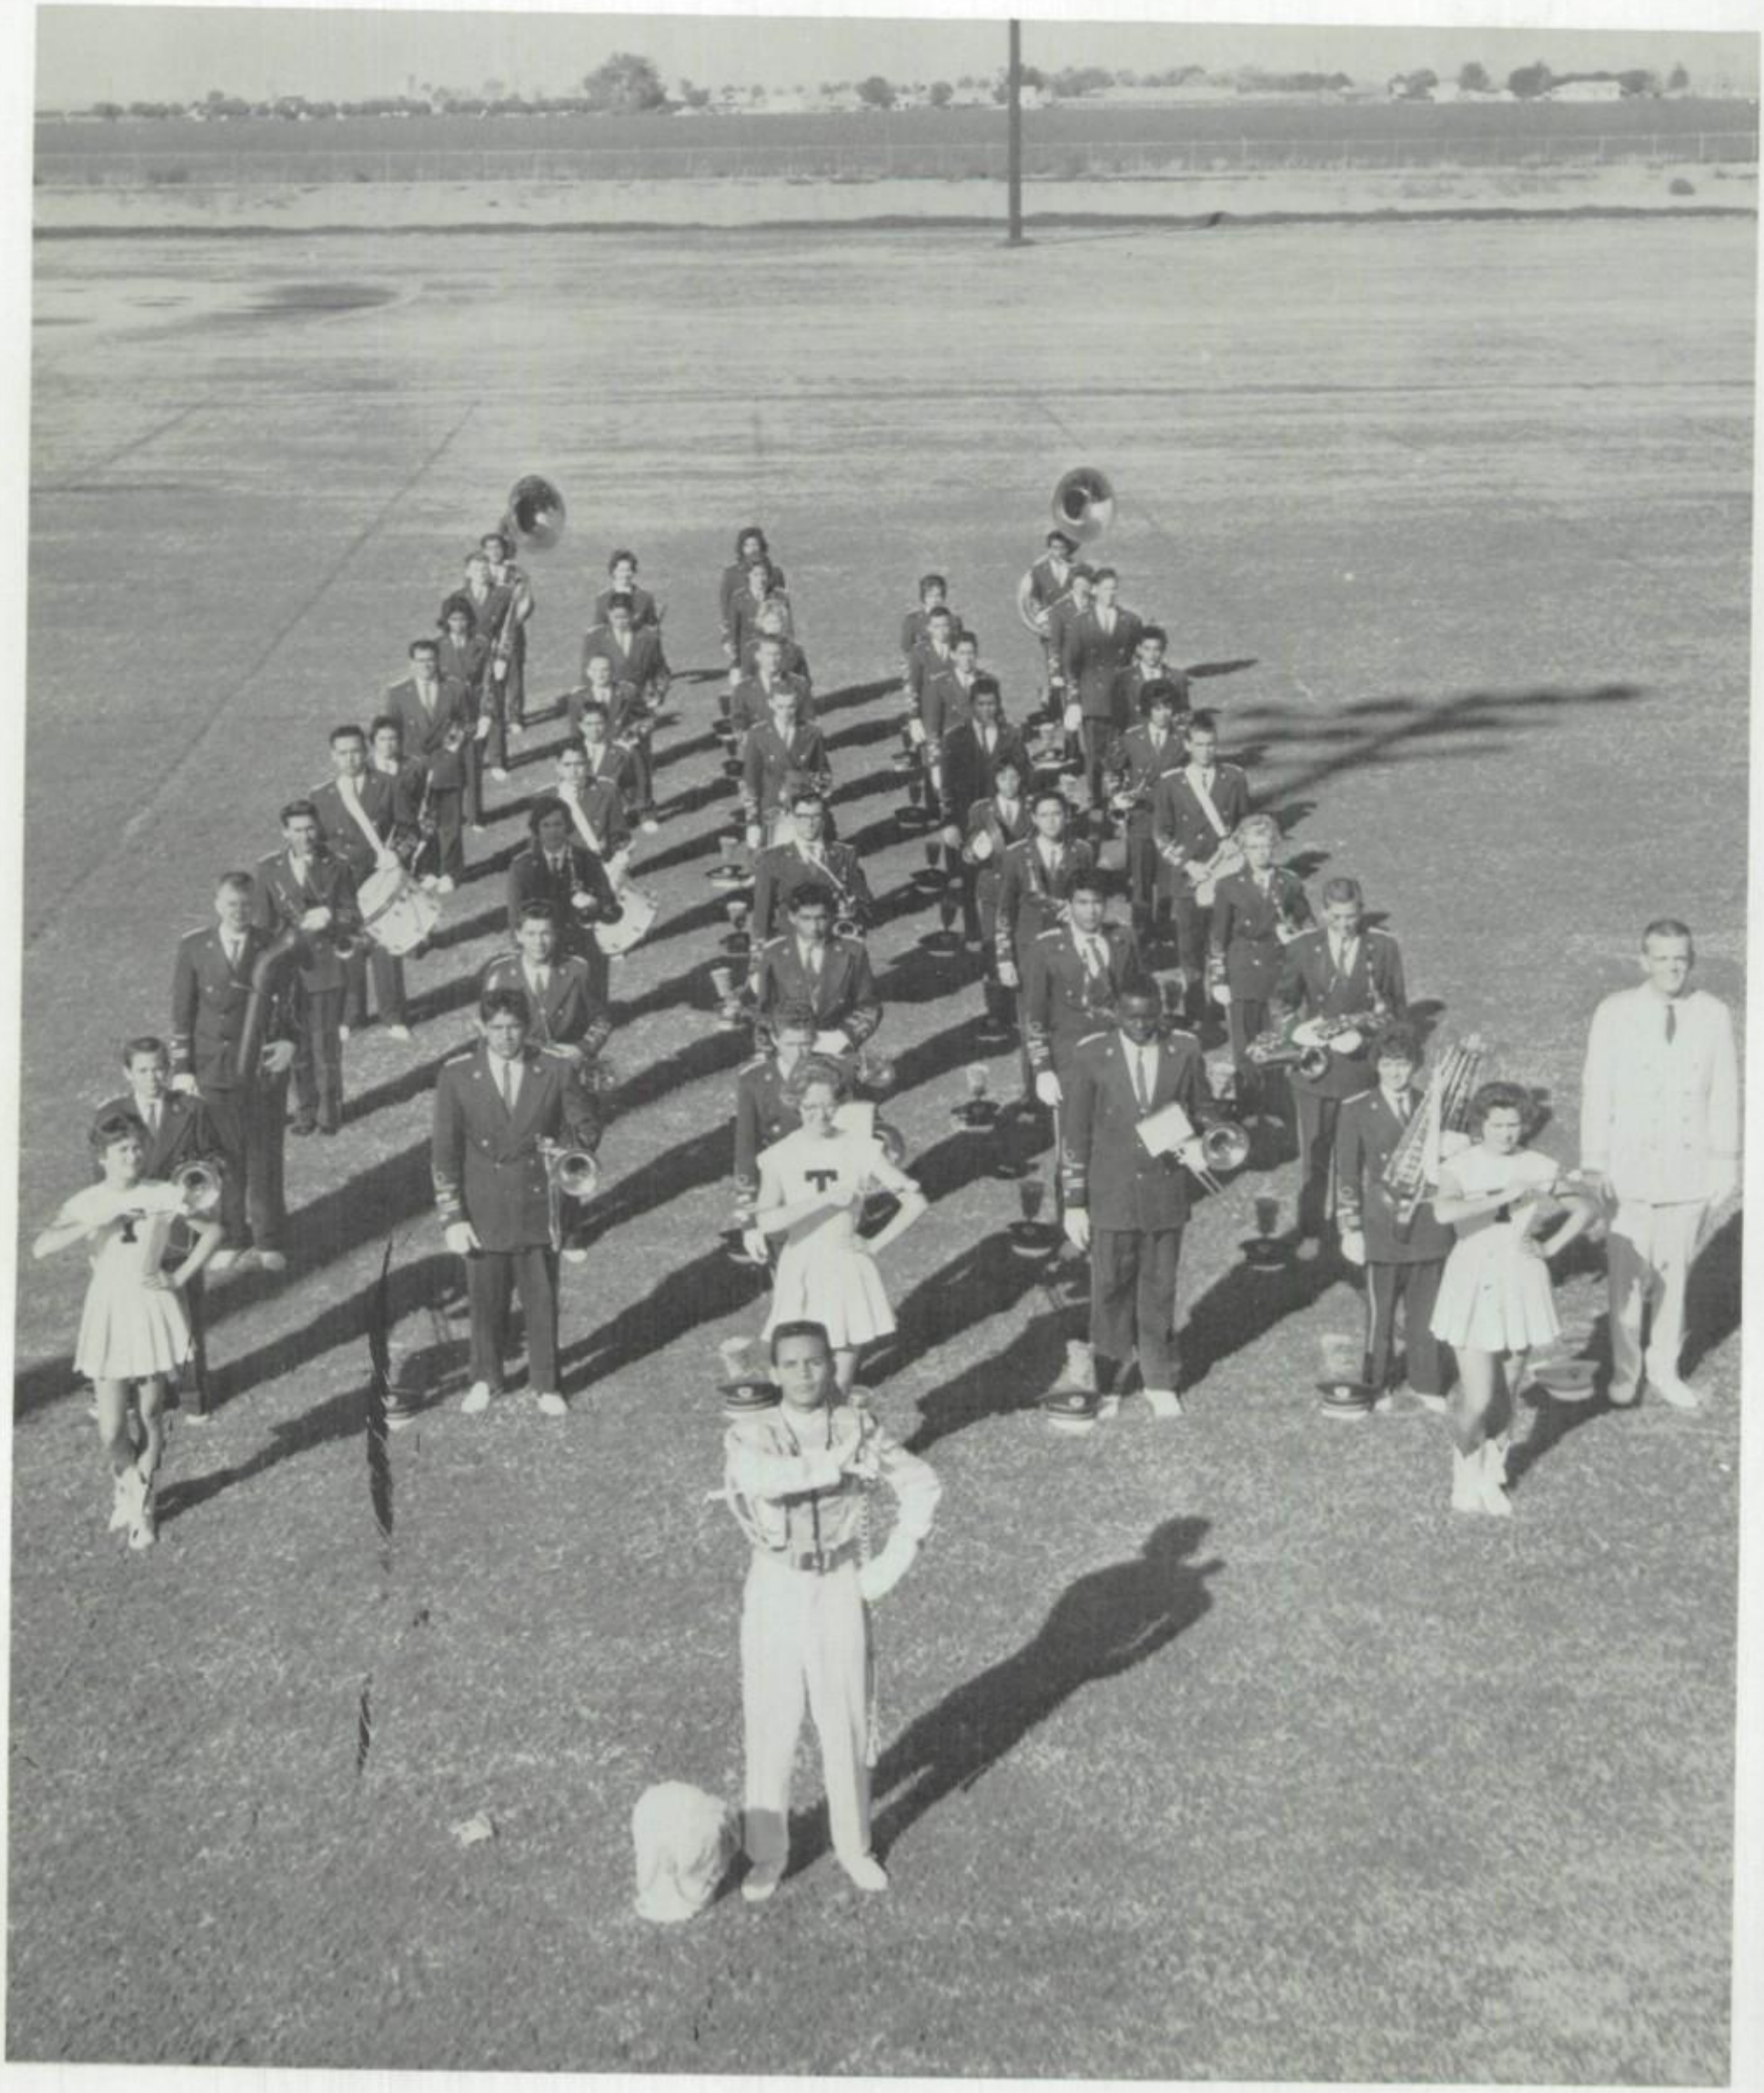
This year Tri-Sci became known as the TUHS Chapter of the Future Scientists of America.

Ordering new membership cards and pins and drawing up a new constitution for the Tolleson Chapter of FSA were a few of the projects.

Officers this year are: Robert Underdown, president; Vernon St. John, vice president; Sharon Stottlemyre, secretary; Pam Leonard, treasurer; and Elizabeth Rodriguez, social chairman.

This club is open to persons interested in science who have completed or are taking any of the courses connected with science or chemistry.

The Band Made Us Mighty Proud



ROW 1: L. Bishop, I. Lair, J. Schmidt. ROW 2: D. Franks, V. Godinez, T. Buffington, W. Smith, S. Pillar. ROW 3: G. Christman, R. Arvizu, M. Villa, T. Chavira, D. Sparkman. ROW 4: B. Conovaloff, V. Rojas. Drum Major Johnny Cordova and Director Mr. John Faris.

Gold plumes and white gloves were sported by the TUHS band.

Dashing in his new white uniform, John Cordova led the band in some of the most impressive halftime ceremonies ever staged at TUHS.

The band also made the school proud when they made various appearances around the state.

Mr. John Faris directed the snappy group.

Adding a colorful touch to the band, these snappy Wolverine twirlers are: I. Lair, J. Schmidt and L. Bishop.

Homecoming was a big affair for the TUHS student body. Here led by John Cordova, drum major, the band plays for the '62 Homecoming parade.

Pom-Pon Girls Headed School Spirit

Pom-Pon Girls for 62-63; ROW 1: N. Miller, B. Beasley, L. Grissam, A. Popoff, J. Leister, R. Mosley, S. Schulke, D. Woodland. ROW 2: D. Valenzuela, P. McWilliams, G. Quezada, S. Stewart, D. Tackett, D. Thurn, M. Allmon and B. Martin.

A. Popoff, D. Tackett, J. Leister, D. Thurn discuss their last routine.

D. Woodland, B. Martin, S. Schulke get set for one of their routines.

Plenty of Spirit Provided by Cheerleaders

Betty Alcocer, Cathy Oracion (co-captain) Kathy Kruse, (co-captain) and Darlene Hintz were the 62-63 cheerleaders.

For the first time, the varsity cheerleaders and pom pon girls centered the pep assemblies around foreign lands and places.

As Indian maidens the girls "whooped it up" to start the series of interesting and different type of assemblies.

Costumes of France brought the flavor of the European countries to the stage.

Besides presiding over the pep assemblies, the cheerleaders were active at all home football and basketball games and still found time to travel to many different schools to cheer their team on to victory.

Lucy Nava and Virginia McBride were cheerleader alternates.

JV cheerleaders for 62-63 were Mary Aleman, Pam Beasley, Pam Vanosdell, Liz Bell, and Peggy Accomazzo.

BOTTOM ROW: R. Moseley, B. Gray, D. Gardner, B. Martin, J. Leister. TOP ROW: P. Dee, D. Hintz, L. Bishop, S. Schulke, I. Lair.

Officers of Tri-Mikros for '63 were: SEATED, FIRST ROW: S. Shelton, treas.; D. Woodland, sec.; P. Leonard, vice-pres. SECOND ROW: B. Gray, pres.; I. Lair, chaplain; and L. Bailey, historian.

During 1962-63 Tri-Mikros, Tri-Hi-Y sponsored the Tri-Hi-Y girls "powder-puff basketball" game, one of the many activities of this girls' club.

Christmas was a happy time of the year for many needy families when Tri-Mikros distributed food, clothing, and toys.

Afterward the girls went caroling to spread good cheer.

In February the annual March of Dimes dance featured disc jockies from Tolleson's radio station, KZON.

This club is open to all girls who are interested in a club with Christian motives and standards.

ROW 1: L. Watkins, G. Quezada, E. Seledon, S. Slaughter, P. Accomazzo, R. Mortensen, M. Halterman, P. Vanosdell. ROW 2: E. Bell, J. Willis, S. Stewart, B. Alcocer, L. Grissam, A. Johnson, C. St. John.

Projects, Meetings Keep FHA Moving

The FHA is a club for any girls who have taken or are taking Home Ec. This year, the Tolleson Chapter, had many projects among which were the "Litter-Bug" Clean Up Hike. The girls hiked three miles to clean up along the roadside.

A slave sale, was another of their projects. The money raised went into their annual Christmas Formal, which is another of their annual projects.

Officers are from left: Marilyn Smith, vice-pres.; Elizebeth Bell, reporter; Kathy Kruse, chairman of degrees; Linda Grissam, pres.; Ruth Moseley treas.; and Sandra Stewart, secretary.

Los Amigos Interests Spanish Speaking Students

ROW 1: E. Berumen, M. Arrieta, A. Murrieta, B. Alcocer, S. Alcocer, L. Nava, R. Arvizu, S. Hernandez. ROW 2: J. Navarro, O. Berumen, M. Mendiola, B. Rodriguez, M. Leon, S. Berumen, V. Garcia, Mr. Gary Mattson. ROW 3: C. Leon, J. Arrieta, G. Leon, Mr. George Gutierrez.

Journalists May Join Quill & Scroll

By selling programs at all home football games, the TUHS chapter of Quill and Scroll was able to raise the money required to send students to the annual Publications Workshop.

Gaily attired in hats and skirts made from newspapers, new members were initiated into the club.

This club is open to any student who has taken either publications or journalism and has the grade average of the upper-third of the class.

Capable editor Linda Bailey (C) was assisted by Donna Thurn and Bobbie Martin.

Milton Jackson (standing) gets a tip from Ray Moreno and George Soto, sports editors.

Wolver News Was All-American

Tolleson Union High School's newspaper was one of which the students could be truly proud. One of the few mimeographed newspapers to use pictures, the paper was the winner of the All-American honor rating from the National Scholastic Press Association and the All-Arizona rating from the University of Arizona.

Frantic cries from Linda Bailey, editor, for copy, worries with torn stencils, lost stories, and a thousand and one crises made working on the newspaper never dull.

Trips to Tempe and Tucson for Journalism Days gave the staff a break from monotony. The new publications room gave the staff a place they could call their own and with its "lived-in" look it was obvious that no one paid much attention when Mr. Winthrop said, "Next week we've got to get organized!"

Mary Deen, Dolores Valenzuela and Myrna Gamblin were valuable members of the staff.

Linda Bishop and Lynn Frederick check the files as Nancy Miller and George Leon try to think of a good lead for a story.

Wolverine Staff Had New Room

Terry Fogelson, Linda Hutchinson, Irvin Wilson, Jim Mortensen and Gene Babcock make plans for their part of the yearbook.

In an effort to record the events of the year for later times when memories grow dim, the publications class prepared the Wolverine.

For the first time there was a publications room located next to the dark room. The hall going into the patio was partitioned off to make the room.

Lee Frederick, editor, and Mr. Robert Winthrop, advisor, plan a layout.

Judith Miller, Sharon Stottlemyre, Allen Warren, Pam Leonard and Don Thompson approve their section layouts.

'Arabian' Homecoming Was Greatest Yet

Homecoming is the time for grads to return to their alma mater. For those in school it is a time of hard work on floats such as the ones this year which carried out the Arabian idea which was also used in half-time ceremonies.

The Quill and Scroll float had harem girls (Kingman) bowing to the sultan (Tolleson).

Homecoming queen candidates are seen riding on the Senior Class float.

Music at the dance was provided by Diamond Jim. Queen Cathy Oracion and King Don Green lead a special dance.

The first place float in the parade was sponsored by the Sophomore Class.

Jumpin' Jupiter Gets Laughs

Three Broadway hopefuls who share an apartment in New York get mixed up in a kidnapping in the Junior Class play, "Jumpin' Jupiter." As they are about to be thrown out of their apartment because they can't pay the rent, they accidentally get hold of $50,000 in ransom money, and their efforts to get rid of it lead to one hilarious situation after another. The kidnapped girl is finally returned safely, and our three young actresses get the reward money and a happy ending is had by all.

The cast was lead by Judy Tackett, Abby; Betty Coffman, Dot; David Hudson, Bob; Robert Laverton, Oscar. Others in the cast were Susie Whyman, Pat; Sherry Shelton, Gilda; Pam Leonard, Minnie; Gary Hintz, messengerboy; Kenneth Szymanski, policeman; Ileen Lair, Mollie; Kathv Beasley, Irene; Robert Cooley, Ben.

Behind the scenery Pam Leonard compliments Sherry Shelton on her performance, while Susie Whyman and Ileen Lair enjoy the acting on stage.

Stage help, P. Dee, I. Wilson, B. Prather, J. Boulais, M. Smith, discuss the play with Miss Maryalice Walter, director.

Senior Play Was "Meet Me in St. Louis"

"Meet Me in St. Louis" was the title of this year's Senior Class play. This warm family comedy involved an amusing and entertaining adventure which comes about when the head of the Smith family, Mr. Smith, receives word that he is to be transferred to New York. The younger members of the family set out to arrange for their family to remain in St. Louis because of the coming of the World's Fair and because of the great change involved in moving.

Members of the cast are: Don Green, Mr. Smith; Harry Hall, Lon; Rose, Jeanne Leister; Linda Grissam, Ester; Annette Popoff, Agnes; Barbara Greenmyer, Toolie; Robert Underdown, Grandpa; Kathy Kruse, Katie; Betty Alcocer, Mrs. Voughoy; Lee Frederick, Inda; Niamet Khan, John; Jim Mortensen, Fred; Judy Miller, Lucille; Jim Smiley, Mr. Dodge; and Don Tompson, Mr. Duffy.

The play was adapted from a book by Sally Denson. It was directed by Miss Maryalice Walter, who also directed the Junior Class play. The play was to help finance the Senior Class picnic.

Outstanding Qualities Earn Seniors Honors

DAR AWARD
DONNA THURN

The DAR AWARD, each year is presented to a senior girl chosen by the faculty to represent qualities of good citizenship. This award is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Besides citizenship, qualifications are leadership and dependability. The candidates are all nominated by the Senior Class.

The BETTY CROCKER AWARD is given annually to the senior girl displaying the greatest knowledge of homemaking. Sponsored by General Mills, the contest offers the winner a chance to vie for college scholarships.

This year, as every year, the BAUSCH LOMB AWARD is given to the senior who has made outstanding achievements in the field of science. Mr. Leslie Hendrix takes into consideration the students' past physics and chemistry records before selecting the student whose qualifications are best.

The king and queen of "Winter Wonderland" were Linda Watkins and Donny Johnson.

Royalty Reigned at Big Dances

Winter Wonderland was the theme of the Christmas Formal. The decorations consisted of tumbleweeds sprayed with silver paint to represent snowmen, Christmas trees, and white pillars.

The king and queen, Donny Johnson and Linda Watkins, were presented with crowns of red velvet, trimmed in gold glitter.

The March-of-Dimes Valentine Dance was held on the patio with Disc-jockey Gary Seger on hand as master of ceremonies.

The queen, Stella Alcocer, and attendants Bobbie Martin and Angie Murrietta were presented with crowns of pink velvet and silver glitter, by last year's queen Nancy Miller.

Kathy Kruse crowns queen Linda Watkins as contestants Virginia McBride, Peggy O'Brien, Sally Slaughter, and Rosanne Mortensen look on.

Unusual Basketball Games Entertained Many TUHS Alumni

Junior boys were given the chance to display their basketball talent in the game between them and the townspeople.

John Hedges jumps for the ball while two unidentified townspeople attempt to stop him.

The "T" Club initiation commando basketball game proved to be interesting although rough.

Here Burke Whitfield exhibits his torn shoe which had been new when the game started.

Tri-Hi-Y and FHA girls battle for the ball during the "Powder Puff" basketball game.

Pam Leonard and Sherry Shelton were the Tri-Hi-Y official bench-warmers and sweepers.

Celebrating FFA week, our chapter of the FFA gave an assembly in its honor. Here David Cox, secretary, presents a talk on "The Atom."

Betty Alcocer and Pam Beasley "whoop it up" at one of the pep assemblies.

Mrs. Tompson smiles as she presents Jeanne Leister with the Betty Crocker Award at the semester honor assembly.

Leanne Grosser, Elizabeth Bell, Jana Keith, Linda Watkins, Gloria Zaragoza and Lynn Frederick receive their certificates for completing the first aid course.

"Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" was among the ballads and folk songs presented by the Mississippians Quartet at one of the assemblies made possible by National School Assemblies.

Activities Relieved Boredom

Linda Watkins, Robin Leverton and Suzie Whyman play it for a laugh in a pep assembly during football season.

Barbar Gray's hair stood on end during an atomic energy assembly.

It was good-by and good luck to the team as they left for Winslow.

Everyone gathered around the bonfire to encourage the team to victory.

Life at TUHS Has Many Facets

More students than ever before have crowded through the halls this year between classes.

During lunch period many of the students pass the time by having a good old fashioned "gab" session.

Katie and Angie Valdivia show off their unusually long hair.

Mr. Gary Mattson's American history classes turned in some fine pieces of workmanship for their semester projects.

Decorating lockers for the holidays was a fad among many of the girls at TUHS. Here Dolores Valenzuela and Nancy Miller proudly exhibit theirs.

Many jokes and stories were told by students behind locker doors this year in the hallway.

Pictured at right are Lincoln and his wife in their box at Ford Theater. In the background is John Wilkes Booth. This was one of the historical scenes viewed by the American history students while on their field trip to the Wax Museum.

The Friendly Faces of People You Know Reflect the Joy of Being a Student at TUHS

Mary Aleman, Peggy Alcomazzo, and Pam Beasley, JV cheerleaders, discuss the pep assembly they are to perform in.

Mr. Gary Mattson points out one of the unique features of the wax figures during the field trip to the American Heritage Wax Museum.

Miss Tolleson Was TUHS' Donna Woodland

Contestants line up for the evening gown competition during the 1963 Miss Tolleson Pageant. They are Donna Woodland, Betty Alcocer, Donna Thurn, Mary Beth Pedigo, Linda Grissam, Susie Whyman, and Diana Tygart.

The Miss Congeniality Award is presented to Donna Woodland by Miss Westside, Diane Gregory, while emcee Art Brock looks on.

Miss Tolleson for 1963, Donna Woodland, proudly stands with her two attendants Diana Tygart (1), first runner-up, and Susie Whyman, second runner-up.

DEAR READERS—

Throughout this school year, the Wolverine staff has worked hard to meet the deadline dates. As the final shipment was sent in to the publishers, there were many sighs of relief.

I, as editor of the 1963 Wolverine, would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to all the many people who aided me in making this annual possible.

First, my most sincere thanks go to the other members on the staff, especially Terry Fogelson and Irvin Wilson who worked so long in the darkroom developing pictures, and Mr. Robert D. Winthrop, who gave us the most valuable assistance as our advisor.

Thanks to Mrs. Hilda Basler and Mrs. Maude Hintz, we were able to get name lists and check the correct spelling of names from the office files.

Thanks also go to the UpDikes Studios who sent us the class pictures and special pictures when they were needed, and to the Taylor Publishing Company for allowing us to correct our mistakes.

Special thanks to all the businesses that purchased an ad and to all the students who bought an annual.

I hope that this annual brings as much enjoyment to its readers as it has brought to us on the 1963 Wolverine Staff.

Lee Frederick
